

2022 Observer Coordinator Guidelines

Coordinator will be paid a $250.00 lump sum stipend for each election* held during the agreement period, after certification of the election, if the conditions of this agreement are met.

Coordinator shall:

- Sign this agreement.
- Attend the Election Observer training session.
- Recruit Observers and provide motivation for attendance.
- Schedule Observers for the of the training sessions offered by the Auditor's Office.
- Schedule observers to work shifts for each activity of the identified activities and ensure that a trained Observer is present for each of the activities.
- Provide the Auditor's Office with the Observers' schedule.
- Be the liaison between Observers and the Auditor's Office.
- Submit an invoice for payment. The invoice should include date, amount, short description of services rendered, and payment address.

The Auditor's Office shall:

- Encourage Observers to be present beginning with the initial daily processing of ballots (Approximately E-45) through election certification.
- Notify the Observer Coordinator of the dates and times for each election.

Other Terms and Conditions:

- Nothing in this agreement shall be construed to create a relationship of employer-employee.
- The performance of all or part of this agreement by the individual shall not operate to vest any employment rights whatsoever and shall not be deemed to guarantee any employment of the individual by the County at the present time or in the future.
- Benton County shall have no obligation to pay benefits.
- The absence of Observers will not prevent the processing of ballots and the carrying out of election related activities.
- County reserves the right to review the observer list and to remove names from the list of persons who lack the ability to properly serve as observers after training has been made available to them by the auditor (RCW 29A.60.170).

Termination for Public Convenience: The County may terminate this agreement in whole or in part whenever the County determines, in its sole discretion, that such termination is in the interests of the County. Whenever the agreement is terminated in accordance with this paragraph, the individual shall be entitled to payment for actual activities performed at a pro-rated share for completed items. An equitable adjustment in the stipend for partially completed activity attendance will be made, but such adjustment shall not include provision for loss of anticipated profit on deleted or uncompleted activities. Termination of this agreement by the County at any time during the term, whether for default or convenience, shall not constitute a breach of contract by the County. The Coordinator shall notify the County in writing should they be unavailable to serve for any election
